

They're Baaack! Shawn and some of his flaggers were back in town last week to fill in a huge pothole at the corner of Cliff and George. But they are only a couple of weeks away from the serious work that will happen on George. Shawn says, "we're happy to be back in Enderby. I just love this town."